

LOCAL GOVERNMENT

Leadership Academy

IN ALAMEDA COUNTY

Begins October 2011

Emerging Leaders Invited to Apply!

Seven Sessions focus on the following:

- The Art and Practice of Leadership
- Communication Skills
- Local Government Finance and Creative Budget Solutions
- Employee and Citizen Engagement
- The Freedom to Think, The Courage to Act
- Multi-Department Problem-Solving
- Developing Your Talent (and Coaching Others)
- Political Astuteness

The cost per participant is $950.

Local governments in Alameda County have formed a cooperative to offer a Leadership Academy for emerging leaders.

The Leadership Academy will be launched in October 2011, meeting on the second Thursday of each month for seven sessions, ending in April 2012. The Academy will be held at the City of Hayward, City Hall.

The target audience is Division Managers, Assistant Department Heads, mid-managers, and other emerging leaders.

HOW TO GET STARTED

To apply, interested applicants should discuss the Leadership Academy as a development opportunity with their Department Director or manager. The deadline for applications is Thursday, July 28, 2011.

For applications and informational materials about the Academy, please contact Lisa Lopez, Alameda County Fire Department, at 510-618-3477 or lisa.lopez@acgov.org.

GOALS OF THE LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

To create a cost-effective talent development program for the participating jurisdictions.

To enhance the leadership skills of the participants.

To assist the participating local governments in their succession planning efforts.

To enhance the network of participants across local government agencies in the County.

To offer employees positive development opportunities and motivating experiences.

HOW IT WORKS

The curriculum of this certificate program consists of in-class presentations by City/County Managers and other local government leaders, critiques of case studies, a team project, and follow-up alumni events.

SIGN UP TODAY!

www.cityoflivermore.net/ACLeadershipAcademy